ALSA PRESENTS:

THE WAR IN ARTSAKH

w / Emile Ghessen

Learn about the Survival of a Nation

 @emileghessen

Emile Ghessen is a former UK Marine who served in Afghanistan and Iraq. Now he's a documentarian, a war correspondent and a storyteller.

Giving people a front seat to the brutal forty-five day war in Armenia, British journalist and filmmaker Emile Ghessen risked his life to spend time on the frontlines with the soldiers to tell their stories.

Mr. Ghessen has shown his followers what it is like on the frontlines and has shown the human side of this story.

"It is quite emotional to see a grown man cry by putting their son in the ground, and watching this Armenian man kissing his son for the last time before the lid of the casket goes on and they put him into the ground." – Emile Ghessen
