

The Armenian Bar Association Announces Its Third “20 Under 40” Rising Stars Awards

The Armenian Bar Association is pleased to announce its upcoming “20 Under 40 Awards” recognizing 20 Armenian legal professionals who, on the date of this announcement, are younger than 40 years old and have distinguished themselves in their area of practice.

The 20 Armenian legal professionals selected will be recognized at an awards dinner in Washington, D.C. during our Thirty-Third Annual Meeting. These professionals may include practicing lawyers, law professors, and members of the judiciary. Individuals can nominate themselves or be nominated by a colleague. Nominees should be individuals who have begun to establish themselves in their respective legal practices, whether in the private, non-profit, or government sector, in the judiciary, or in academia. They must have a proven track record of career success, be involved in promoting their profession, and demonstrate that they give back to their communities and advance the mission of the Armenian Bar Association. To substantiate these credentials, a current resume and cover letter (not to exceed 2 pages) must be submitted and two (2) references must be provided.

The deadline to nominate a colleague is Monday, September 12, 2022. Information regarding nominations, including the nomination form, is available at www.armenianbar.org/rising-stars-award/. The 20 individuals selected must be members of the Armenian Bar Association.

Nomination forms and application materials must be submitted via email to info@armenianbar.org and the subject line should read: “20 Under 40.”
